COMMUNICATIONS.

BISHOP MEADE MEMORIAL CHURCH, IN CLARKE CO.—We propose to build this Church first and above all, to the glory of God, and the promotion of his Kingdom in our midst; and then in grateful memory of our late beloved bishop.

The site upon which we hope to build it adjoins the village of White Post, in Clarke county, on a part of the estate which belonged to the Bishop's father. It is among the relatives and neighbors of our late Bishop, and not far from his late residence, and very near his birth place.

There are in the neighborhood some thirty communicants, with large attendance upon Episcopal services, when a building can be borrowed for their accommodation. Our Methodist brethren have very kindly allowed us to use their Church two Sundays of the month, for a number of years, but we feel that we have trespassed upon their kindness long enough.

A new parish has been formed "Greenway Court Parish," by consent of our Diocesan Council; and now what we most want and really need is a sanctuary to worship in.

The Church is to be of moderate size, strongly built, and durable, and in keeping with the Bishop's habits, and manner of life; plain, though substantial, and with no needless expense. If means permit, there will be a plain mural tablet, to the memory of one, who was a benefactor to his neighborhood, to the State and to the Church.

The work has been begun, where it should begin—At Home. In this case, as in many others, in the South, since the great calamities, which have befallen her—womanly when men despair, have led the way. Foremost in the female band of workers, is the Bishop's only remaining sister, now in her 78th year. They have provided the means for the foundation, which will be laid in the early Spring. The neighbors will also generally aid, but are too much impoverished to complete the work.

Is it too much to ask of all the members of the Church in Virginia and elsewhere, whom this Circular may reach, to contribute from One to Ten Dollars, or more towards the erection of this most appropriate Memorial to our lamented Bishop, within sight of his birthplace, and life-long home, and at a point where a Church in which to worship God is so much needed, and on a field so promising for the preaching of the Gospel and the extension of the Episcopal Church? Surely but few will decline; most will gratefully respond, and none can think the suggestion as contained above unreasonable.

Donations may be sent to the undersigned Rector of Christ Church, Millwood, and also of the above Parish, and acknowledgements will be made in the Southern Churchman.

I would earnestly commend the proposition above made to all whom it may reach.

Letter from Bishop Johns.
MALVERN, January 6th, 1872.

Reverend and Dear Brother:—I have read your appeal with much interest—endorse its statements very cordially, and will be happy to hear that the response will enable you to accomplish what you propose.

A Memorial Church at White Post, will be very appropriate, for the reasons assigned, and is certainly much needed.

Yours Truly,
J. R. JONES.

THE DISPERSION OF THE JEWS.—The Allgemeine Zeitung gives some interesting particulars as to the dispersion of the Jews over the world. In Palestine they have long been reduced to a very small proportion of their former numbers. They are now most numerous in the northern part of Africa, between Morocco and Egypt, (where, especially in the Barbary States, they form the chief element of the population,) and in that strip of Europe which extends from the lower Danube to the Baltic. In the latter region there are about 4,000,000 Jews, most of whom are of the middle class among the Slavonic nationalities, while in the whole of Western Europe there are not 100,000 of them.

In consequence of European migrations, descendants of these Jews have settled in America and Australia, where they are already multiplying in the large commercial towns in the same manner as in Europe, and much more rapidly than the Christian population. The Jewish settlers in Northern Africa are also increasing so much that they constantly spread farther to the South. Timbucto has since 1858, been inhabited by a Jewish colony of traders. The other Jews in Africa are the Falaschas, or Abyssinian black Jews, and a few European Jews at the Cape of Good Hope. There are numerous Jewish colonies in Yemen and Nedschran, in Western Arabia.

It has long been known that there are Jews in Persia and the countries on the Euphrates; in the Turcoman countries they inhabit the four fortresses of Scheris, Kitah, Schamoun and Urta Kurgan, and thirty small villages, residing in a separate quarter, but treated on an equal footing with the other inhabitants, though they have to pay higher taxes. There are also Jews in China, and in Cochinchina there are both white and black Jews.

An interesting meteorological event occurred in New Orleans a few days ago, which set the old folks talking in a reminiscence vein, and aroused the keen interest of the juveniles. This took the shape of a smart fall of snow—something very rare in that latitudinally—and the like of which has not occurred more than two or three times in the last twenty years. In the land where violets bloom in January, and the days of winter are more frequently suggestive of Gemini, the twins, than of Aquarius the waterman, such an event is almost phenomenal.

An offer made to the Russian Government, by the inhabitants of Caucasus, of a corps of ten thousand soldiers, in case of war with Austria for the possession of the Lower Danube, has given great satisfaction at Court and among the Old Russian party. The offer was, however, declined by the Czar, on the ground that war is a very remote contingency, in view of his friendly relations with Austria and all other European Powers.
